

Greenwich Riders To Hounds Prepare For Tuesday Races

Hunting Folk to Contest for Cups in the Lightweight and Heavyweight Events at McClenahan's Farm

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 30.—The hunting people of Fairfield and Westchester Counties are all agog over the coming point-to-point races to be held at James McClenahan's farm, Port Chester, N. Y., on Election Day. Two beautiful cups, one for the winner of the lightweight race and the other for the winner of the heavyweight, have been offered by the Fairfield and Westchester Hounds. John McE. Bowman will give a hunt breakfast at 3 o'clock, after which the races will take place. The course includes a "trappy" and difficult "in and out," where the horses have to jump into a narrow farm lane and then out again immediately, this having to be repeated twice in each race. The riders will wear colors, or hunt uniforms.

Members of the Greenwich Riding Association will have many entries, including the famous horses of Charles D. Lanier and W. H. Maddison. This is the first event of the kind ever held in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Cleveland Jr. gave a supper dance at the Field Club Friday night for Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Righter, of Plainfield, N. J., who recently purchased the Ingram place on Calhoun Drive here. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Among those present were Mrs. Hugh W. Jackson, Mrs. F. W. Lincoln, Mrs. Charles D. Lanier, Mrs. Henry D. Righter, Mrs. Herbert W. Righter, Mrs. Bailey Stoughton, Mrs. Marshall C. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Huntington Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorp.

About thirty-five guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Close enjoyed a buffet supper last Saturday evening at the Close residence in Roseland. Later on in the evening a number of the guests, including many women, got forth with lanterns and guns and dogs on a hunt. They returned after tramping nine miles, wading through streams in the chase, without any game, but with various adventures to their credit.
